CITY OF REFUGE/ PU'UHONUA O HŌNAUNAU NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK

Pu'uhonua o Hōnaunau is an important Hawaiian ceremonial site bounded on its southern and eastern sides by a massive L-shaped wall, known as the Pā Pu'uhonua (Great Wall), and on its northern and western sides by the ocean. In addition to the Great Wall, within the Pu'uhonua are several other important ceremonial structures including the Hale o Keawe, 'Āle'ale'a Heiau, and the Ancient Heiau

MAUNA KEA

Mauna Kea, one of six volcanoes that have formed the island of Hawaii, is the tallest mountain on Earth at 9,966 meters (32,696 feet, 6.2 miles). Mauna Kea is dormant, having last erupted 4,600 years ago. Kohala is the island's oldest volcano and is now extinct.

KONA COFFEE LIVING HISTORY FARM

Stroll through this award-winning, historic farm that tells the story of Kona's coffee pioneers during the early 20th century. A self-guided experience, you're free to walk among the coffee trees, meet a "Kona Nightingale", or watch how farmers used the kuriba and hoshidana to mill and dry their world-famous coffee.

GREENWELL FARMS

The Greenwell Farms legacy began in 1850; today, the company maintains coffee orchards on 85 acres, is developing new farms, and it controls and manages another 60 acres of coffee for other land owners. As one of the largest and oldest coffee producers in Kona, Greenwell Farms is proud to celebrate its history and spread the spirit of aloha with every cup.

OUTRIGGER ACTIVITIES & EXPERIENCES

Concierge services to reserve manta ray adventures, snorkel tours, sunset sails, boat charters and more.

HULIHE'E PALACE

Hulihe'e Palace is located in historic Kailua-Kona on Ali'i Drive. The Palace was originally built out of lava rock during the Kingdom of Hawai'i on land known as Kalāke'e, a former residence of Kamehameha the Great. The Palace itself was first home to High Chief John Adams Kuakini, brother of Ka'ahumanu the favorite wife of Kamehameha, and later home to more members of Hawaiian royalty than any other residence in Hawai'i. Hulihe'e Palace consists of six large graciously appointed rooms, two large inviting oceanfront lanai and lovely grounds.

FAIR WIND CRUISES

Since 1971, Fair Wind Cruises provides top-rated Big Island of Hawai'i snorkel tours from Kona. Hop aboard one of our daily Kona snorkel boat tours to Kealakekua Bay's pristine waters or to explore remote south Kona. Have a deluxe experience on a morning snorkel tour to Kealakekua Bay, or enjoy the bay to yourselves on our shorter afternoon snorkel tour. This site is regarded as the best place to snorkel in all of Hawai'i for its sea life. It also houses the historic Captain Cook Monument too. All adventures are family-friendly and are suitable for snorkelers of all skill levels!

BIG ISLAND BEES

Enter the world of bees and beekeeping. Take a beekeeping tour where you'll have a box seat on beekeeping in a safe and secure screened area. Visit our museum and tasting room to explore the amazing world of bees and enjoy free sampling of our delicious, raw organic honeys. You can also browse our store full of honey, beeswax products and beekeeping memorabilia. Come spend some time with us in this hidden corner of Hawai'i. 120 million of our bees look forward to seeing you!
